

Abstract of the discipline
«Civil Process»

3th year, 5th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 4

Total hours – 120

The program of the academic discipline «Civil Process» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to teach students to correctly interpret and apply the rules of civil procedural law; use the data of the science of civil procedural law to solve professional problems; evaluate evidence in a civil case; understand the content of procedural institutions, decisions of the plenums of the Supreme Court; to prepare a qualified specialist in the interpretation, analysis of the rules of civil procedural law and their practical application in resolving specific court cases.

Description of the discipline: General provisions of civil procedure. Principles of civil procedural law. Participants in the trial. Civil jurisdiction and jurisdiction of civil cases. Procedural deadlines and court costs. Evidence and evidence in civil proceedings. Lawsuit. Initiation of a civil case. Consideration of the case on the merits. The decision of the court of first instance. Correspondence consideration of cases. Order proceedings. Separate proceedings. Appeal proceedings. Cassation proceedings. Proceedings in connection with newly discovered circumstances. Litigation with foreign citizens and organizations.

The form of final control is a test.