

Abstract of the discipline
«Intellectual Property Law of the European Union»

4th year, 8th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «Intellectual Property Law of the European Union» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to operate and acquire general knowledge by students about the concepts, goals and principles of ensuring intellectual property rights at the national and supranational levels; theoretical provisions that allow distinguishing the forms and mechanisms of practical protection of intellectual property rights; characteristics of the European Union as a modern integration model; basic legal information about intellectual property law; the specificity of the institutional mechanisms for the protection of intellectual property rights in the EU.

Description of the discipline: General provisions on intellectual property rights. General principles of intellectual property law in the EU. Intellectual property rights in the EU legal system. Precedent regulation of intellectual property issues in the EU. Copyright in the EU. Related rights in the EU. Intellectual property rights for inventions and utility models in the EU. Industrial samples in EU countries. Trademarks and commercial names in EU countries. Protection of intellectual property rights within the framework of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). Protection of intellectual property rights within the framework of the World Trade Organization (WTO). Adaptation of Ukrainian legislation to EU legislation in the field of intellectual property.

The form of final control is a test.