

Abstract of the discipline
«Private International Law»

3th year, 5th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 1250

The program of the academic discipline «Private International Law» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to train a qualified specialist in the history of development, categorical and conceptual apparatus of private international law; sources, institutions and main types of conflict of interest of private international law; solving private law problems with a foreign element and working with relevant international and national regulations.

Description of the discipline: General characteristics of private international law. Sources of private international law. Conflict of law in private international law. Application of conflict of law rules in private international law. Subjects of private international law. Property rights in private international law. Intellectual property law in private international law. Obligations in private international law. Hereditary relations in private international law. Labor relations in private international law. Marital and family relations in private international law. International civil proceedings and international commercial arbitration.

The form of final control is the exam.