

Abstract of the dissertation
“International electoral standards”
4th year, 7th semester

Level of academic degree - bachelor's degree

Specialty 293 International law

Credit hours - 4

Total hours - 120

The program of the discipline “International Electoral Standards” is drawn up by the educational and professional program of training of bachelors of specialty 293, International Law.

The purpose of the course is to train specialists who have high legal awareness and legal culture, possess the knowledge of international electoral standards necessary for their professional activities, professionally navigate modern legal relations in the field of realization of human electoral rights, the basic principles of electoral law, and make balanced and informed decisions within their professional competence.

Description of the discipline: International legal standards as principles of law. International legal electoral standards. Sources of international electoral standards and electoral law of Ukraine. The principle of universal suffrage. The principle of equal suffrage. The principle of free elections. The principle of fair, direct, periodic, and genuine elections. Electoral administration bodies in Ukraine. Party systems in the context of elections in Ukraine. Electoral process and principles of the electoral process in Ukraine. Electoral systems in Ukraine. Financing of election campaigns in Ukraine.

Form of final control: credit