

Abstract of the discipline
«European system of human rights protection»

4 Year of study 7 Semester
Level of academic degree – bachelor
Specialty 293 International law.
Credit hours – 4
Total hours – 120

The program of the course “European system of human rights protection” belongs to the category of elective disciplines. It is taught in the 4th year, 7th semester for students of the first higher education level – bachelor, specialty 293 International law.

The purpose of the discipline is mastering certain tools of the field of the European system of human rights protection; analysing the genesis of the formation and development of the institute for the protection of human rights at the European level; studying the essence of international legal regulation of human rights within the Council of Europe; its institutional basis; studying the essence of legal regulation of human rights within the European Union; its institutional basis; paying attention to the essence of legal regulation of human rights within the framework of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, its institutional basis.

Description of the discipline: The genesis of human rights at the international regional level. Concept, essence of human rights. Legitimate restriction of human rights and derogation in time of emergency. The Council of Europe legal basis for human rights protection. The Council of Europe institutional mechanism for human rights protection. Case law of the European Court of Human Rights. The European Union legal basis for human rights protection. The European Union institutional basis for human rights protection. The OSCE legal basis for human rights protection. The OSCE institutional basis for human rights protection.

Form of final control: test