

Abstract of the discipline
"Integration Processes in Europe: History and Modernity"

3rd year, 6th semester
Level of higher education – bachelor
Specialty 293 International Law
Number of credits – 5
Total number of hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline "Integration Processes in Europe: History and Modernity" is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to familiarize students with the history of the formation and development and the current state of integration formations in Europe - European intergovernmental associations, based on an international treaty of states, which cede a number of sovereign powers to the created supranational bodies; clarifying the patterns and main directions of their development, which will contribute to a better understanding of the international legal realities of today.

Description of the discipline: The concept of regional integration. Theories of integration. Formation of prototypes of international integration formations in Europe in ancient times. The idea of a universal monarchy as the basis for the unification of Europe in the early and high Middle Ages. Integration formations in medieval Europe. Development of the idea of a united Europe in the Renaissance: from a universal monarchy to a union of states. Evolution of the idea of a united Europe in the Age of Enlightenment: from a union of monarchs to a union of republics. Development of the idea of a united Europe in the 19th and early 20th centuries. Formation of the idea of the "United States of Europe" in the first half of the 20th century. Evolution of the idea of the "United States of Europe" in the second half of the 20th century. Creation of the European Community. Processes of expanding European unification. Stages and directions of development of European integration. Treaty and legal system of the European Union. Institutional structure of the EU. Budget of the European Union. Common policies of the European Union. European monetary integration. Peculiarities of national models of economic development in the EU. Integration processes in Greater Europe. Laying the foundations of Ukrainian-European integration processes in the second half of the 17th - first half of the 20th century. Ukraine on the path to European integration.

Form of final control: credit