

Abstract of the discipline
"International organizational and legal mechanism for combating crime"

4th year, 8th semester
Level of higher education – bachelor's degree
Specialty 293 International Law
Number of credits – 5
Total number of hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline "International Organizational and Legal Mechanism for Combating Crime" is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching an academic discipline is to master certain tools in the field of combating transnational organized crime, studying international legal foundations in the field of combating organized crime, institutional mechanisms for combating transnational organized crime at the international level.

Description of the discipline: Formation and development of international cooperation in the field of combating organized crime. Concept and forms of transnational organized crime. Directions of international cooperation in the field of combating organized crime. Counteraction to corruption at the international level. Counteraction to crimes of human trafficking and migrant smuggling at the international level. Counteraction to cybercrime at the international level. Counteraction to environmental crime at the international level. Counteraction to the illicit manufacture and circulation of firearms, their components and parts, as well as ammunition for them at the international level. Counteraction to terrorism at the international level. Counteraction to the illicit circulation of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and precursors at the international level. Counteraction to the illicit circulation of cultural property and other related crimes. Protection of victims and witnesses of transnational organized crime. Education and training of law enforcement officers

Final control form: credit