

Course Annotation
«International Treaty Law»

3rd year 6th semester

Level of academic degree – bachelor's degree

Specialty 293 International Law

Credit hours – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «International Treaty Law» is drawn up in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation of the bachelor of branch of knowledge 29 International relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to master certain tools in the field of law of international treaties, studying its essence, features; acquaintance with the characteristics of international agreements and their types; study of the procedure for concluding international agreements.

Course description: The concept and codification of the law of international treaties. The concept, content and types of international agreements. Principles of law of international treaties. Concluding an international agreement. Reservations to the international agreement. Promulgation of an international agreement. Features of the international agreement. Interpretation of an international agreement. International treaties and third countries. Implementation of international agreements. Succession of international agreements. International Treaty of Ukraine: concepts, features of conclusion, entry into force, interpretation and implementation. The effect of international treaties in the domestic law of Ukraine.

Form of final control: Credit