

Course Annotation
«Legal Status of the Territory in International Law»

4th year, 7th semester
Level of academic degree – bachelor's degree
Specialty 293 International Law
Credit hours – 6
Total hours – 180

The program of the academic discipline «Legal status of the territory in International Law» is drawn up in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation of the bachelor of branch of knowledge 29 International relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline «Legal status of the territory in International Law» is to introduce students to and develop a comprehensive understanding of the main aspects of the legal regime and status of territory in international law, including both theoretical and practical issues related to the regulation of international legal governance of territorial issues.

Course description: Concept and types of territories in International Law. Composition of the state territory. State borders. Grounds for changing the state territory. Territorial disputes and claims. International legal regime of airspace. International legal regime of maritime spaces. International legal regime of rivers and lakes. International legal regime of the Arctic and Antarctic. International legal regime of outer space.

Form of final control: Credit.