

Abstract of the discipline
"Legal regulation of the social sphere in the EU"

4th year, 8th semester
Level of higher education – bachelor's degree
Specialty 293 International Law
Number of credits – 5
Total number of hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline "Legal Regulation of the Social Sphere in the EU" is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to form in students, as future highly qualified specialists, the necessary knowledge base about the legal basis, goals, principles and directions of social policy measures, which are developed and implemented by the institutional mechanism of the European Union.

Description of the discipline: Concept, structure and main characteristics of the social policy of the European Union. Main components of the EU policy in the social sphere. Legal regulation of the social sphere of the European Union. The policy of the European Union in the sphere of forming standards for ensuring equal social rights of citizens. The policy of the European Union in the sphere of ensuring employment guarantees. Management of the social sphere in the light of increasing the global competitiveness of the EU. The main directions of the EU social policy in the modern period. The common labor market of the EU. Implementation of the policy of the European Union in the social sphere in relation to certain categories of persons. Healthcare in the EU. European standards for protecting the right of working women to maternity protection. Social protection of EU migrant workers. General principles of cooperation between Ukraine and the EU in the sphere of social policy in accordance with the Association Agreement.

Form of final control: exam