

Abstract of the academic discipline
" International Legal Providing of Migration Processes "

2nd year 3rd semester

Level of higher education – Master

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 4

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline " International Legal Providing of Migration Processes " is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation of the second (master's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to familiarize students with the international legal regulation of migration processes, forms and principles of international cooperation of states in the field of population migration, theoretical and practical issues related to forced population migration and to form in students the ability to solve complex problems in the field of population migration on the basis of the domestic law of Ukraine and foreign countries, international agreements of a universal and regional nature in the field of regulating forced population migration.

Description of the discipline: the concept, content and essence of the right to freedom of movement and free choice of place of residence. Foreign experience for Ukraine in the field of ensuring the rights of migrants and migration. Legal status of displaced persons: the experience of the European Union and Ukraine. Features of ensuring the rights and freedoms of refugees and persons in need of additional or temporary protection. Features of ensuring the rights and freedoms of women and children in conditions of migration. National and international mechanisms for ensuring labor migration. International legal and national support for tourism. Ensuring climate and ecological migration in the modern world. Constitutional and legal principles of ensuring the rights of citizens abroad. Ensuring migration processes in wartime. Preventing illegal migration.

Final control form: exam.