

Abstract of the discipline
«Comparative Copyright»

4th year, 7th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 4

Total hours – 120

The program of the academic discipline «Comparative Copyright» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to acquire theoretical and practical knowledge and skills in the field of regulation of legal relations in the field of international copyright; understanding the basic principles of the functioning of institutions in the field of international law.

Description of the discipline: Principles and evolution of international copyright. Sources of international copyright. International cooperation of states in the field of copyright protection. Copyright legislation in different legal systems. Collective management of copyright and related rights. Protection and defense of copyright and related rights. Legal regulation of copyright and related rights in the European Union. Legal regulation of copyright and related rights in the USA. Modern aspects of the development of international copyright. Copyright infringement on the Internet and the international fight against piracy. Features of copyright protection for software. Procedural aspects of international copyright protection.

Final control form – test.