

Abstract of the discipline
«Comparative Inheritance Law»

4th year, 7th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «Comparative Inheritance Law» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to train a qualified specialist who is fluent in and operates with the basic definitions and provisions of the history of development, the categorical and conceptual apparatus of inheritance law in a comparative aspect; is able to work with relevant international and national regulatory documents.

Description of the discipline: General characteristics of comparative inheritance law. Inheritance legal relationship. Inheritance by will in different legal systems. Inheritance by law in different legal systems. Exercise of the right to inheritance in different legal systems. International inheritance relations.

The form of final control is an exam.