

Abstract of the discipline
«Comparative Property Law»

2nd year 4th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 4

Total number of hours – 120

The program of the academic discipline «Comparative Property Law» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to train specialists who have in-depth knowledge in the field of property relations, the necessary practical skills to solve specific practical tasks; able to independently navigate modern property relations, solve the tasks set before them within the framework of their professional competence.

Description of the discipline: The concept and system of property rights. Things as objects of property rights. Property rights: general provisions. Joint ownership. Trust property. Protection of property rights. Possession. Protection of a bona fide acquirer. Real (predial) easements. Personal easements. Usufruct. Superficies and emphyteusis as rights to another person's land plot.

The form of final control is a test.