

Summary of the course

«Constitutional justice»

1st year 2 semester

Level of higher education - master's degree

Speciality 293 International law

Number of credits - 5

Total number of hours - 150

The programme of the course is designed in accordance with the educational and professional programme for Master's degree in International Relations, speciality 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the course ‘Constitutional Justice’ is to provide students with: knowledge of the main stages of evolution, current state and main trends in the development of constitutional justice; conceptual framework in the field of constitutional justice; ability to systematise and search for legal norms on the status of subjects of constitutional and legal relations; ability to analyse legal literature on constitutionalism; knowledge of the general principles and directions of development of constitutional justice in Ukraine and abroad; skills in the correct application of modern constitutional and legal doctrine in solving practical problems; ability to provide constitutional and legal characteristics of processes and phenomena taking place in Ukraine and abroad; ability to search and critically analyse materials of law enforcement activities in solving specific practical problems.

Description of the course:

- the concept of constitutional justice and its organisational and legal forms;
- jurisdiction of constitutional justice bodies: comparative legal aspect;
- formation of constitutional justice in Ukraine;
- constitutional justice in Ukraine in the aspect of formation of national constitutionalism;
- constitutional and legal status of a judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine;
- organisation of the activities of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine;
- functions and powers of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine;
- constitutional proceedings in Ukraine;
- peculiarities of certain types of constitutional proceedings in Ukraine;
- acts of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine;
- legal positions of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

Final control in the form of a test.