

Abstract of the discipline
«International Commercial Agreements»

1st year 2nd semester

Level of higher education – Master

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total number of hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «International Commercial Agreements» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation of the second (master's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to train specialists who have a high legal awareness and legal culture, possess the knowledge and practical skills necessary in their professional activities to solve specific tasks in the field of commercial law, who are able to independently and competently navigate modern international commercial legal relations, make balanced and reasoned decisions within the framework of their professional competence.

Description of the discipline: The essence of international commercial agreements. Legal unification of international commercial activity. International purchase and sale of goods. General characteristics of international trade in services. International carriage contracts and related relations. International investment agreements. Intermediary activities in international commercial turnover. International commercial agreements with rights to intellectual property objects. Insurance in international trade activities. Legal regulation of international financial relations. Antimonopoly regulation of international economic relations.

Form of final control – test.