

Abstract of the discipline
«International Commercial Arbitration»

2nd year 3rd semester

Level of higher education – Master

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «International Commercial Arbitration» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the second (master's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to master the main theoretical aspects of the legal regulation of the procedure for considering disputes by international commercial arbitration, practical skills and abilities to determine the competence of arbitration to consider disputes, determine the law that should be applied by arbitration to resolve a dispute, and the law in accordance with which arbitration considers disputes.

Description of the discipline: General characteristics of international commercial arbitration. Legal regulation of the activities of international commercial arbitrations. Arbitration agreement. Determination of the competence of arbitration courts. Principles of the activities of an international arbitration court. International commercial arbitration in foreign countries. Subjects of the arbitration process. Evidence in international commercial arbitration. Arbitration costs. Initiation of a case in international commercial arbitration. Consideration of a case in international commercial arbitration. Decisions (award) and other decisions of international commercial arbitration. Appeal and enforcement of decisions of international commercial arbitration.

Form of final control – test.