

Abstract of the discipline
«International justice»

2 Year of study 3 Semester
Level of academic degree – master
Specialty 293 International law.
Credit hours – 5
Total hours – 150

The programme of the discipline «International justice» is drawn up in accordance with the educational and professional programme of preparation of the master of field of knowledge 29 International relations, specialty 293 International law.

The purpose of the discipline is to master certain tools in the field of international justice, to study its essence, features; to get acquainted with the activities of international justice bodies; their organisation; competence; legal status of bodies and officials; the procedure for conducting legal proceedings.

Description of the discipline: Establishment and development of international justice. The International Court of Justice: organisation, competence, and conduct of proceedings. International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea. The International Criminal Court. Ad hoc tribunals. Hybrid courts. Internal justice system of international organisations. Court of Justice of the European Union. International economic courts. Bodies of international human rights justice.

Form of final control: Exam