

Summary of the discipline
"International Legal Standards of Law Enforcement Activities"

2nd year 3rd semester
Level of higher education – Master
Specialty 293 International Law
Number of credits – 5
Total hours – 150

The program of the discipline "International Legal Standards of Law Enforcement Activities" is drawn up in accordance with the educational and professional program of the second (master's) level of higher education, subject area 29 International relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline: to master certain tools in the field of law enforcement activities, to study international legal principles in the field of law enforcement activities, forms and directions of international cooperation in the law enforcement area and the activities of law enforcement bodies, institutions, and agencies at the international level.

Description of the discipline: International cooperation in the field of law enforcement activities. International legal principles in the field of law enforcement activities. Law enforcement activities of the United Nations. International Criminal Police Organization (Interpol) in the system of international law enforcement organizations. Interpol's activities in the fight against certain types of criminal crimes of an international nature. European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Cooperation (Europol) as a subject of international law enforcement activities. European law enforcement bodies and institutions. Sub-regional law enforcement bodies and institutions. Ukraine as a participant in international cooperation in the field of law enforcement activities. International standards of observance of human rights in the law enforcement area.

Form of final control: exam.