

Abstract of the discipline
«International Trade Law»

4th year, 7th semester

Level of higher education – bachelor

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the academic discipline «International Trade Law» is compiled in accordance with the educational and professional program of preparation for the first (bachelor's) level of higher education in the field of knowledge 29 International Relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of teaching the academic discipline is to achieve a comprehensive deep understanding and assimilation by students of the essence, nature and mechanisms of international trade law in modern conditions of integration of national legislation with the legislation of the European Union.

Description of the discipline: General characteristics of international trade law. International trade organizations as subjects of international trade law. International trade agreements. International currency settlements. Methods of resolving international trade disputes. National regulation of foreign economic activity. Legal regulation of individual foreign economic agreements. Legal regulation of foreign economic activity in free economic zones.

Form of final control – test.