

Summary of the discipline
"Legal basis for International Civil Service"

2nd year 3rd semester

Level of higher education – Master

Specialty 293 International Law

Number of credits – 5

Total hours – 150

The program of the discipline "Legal basis for International Civil Service" is drawn up in accordance with the educational and professional program of the second (master's) level of higher education, subject area 29 International relations, specialty 293 International Law.

The purpose of the discipline: mastering certain tools in the field of international civil service; studying the specifics of the activities of international civil servants; participation in the competition for civil service, the hiring procedure, social security of international civil servants; the procedure for protecting the rights of international civil servants.

Description of the discipline: Formation and development of the international civil service. Classification of international civil service positions. Procedure for appointment to a position. Social security of international civil servants. Procedure for termination of international civil service. Disciplinary liability of international civil servants. Standards of professional activity of international civil servants. International Civil Service Commission. Protection of the rights of international civil servants.

Form of final control: credit test.